Call for Papers

Editor-in-Chief:
Scott Gates, Norwegian University of Science and Technology and PRIO, Norway

IASR stands alone as the area studies journal that is truly global in perspective.

IASR publishes high quality theoretical, analytical, and empirical works on international politics, economics, culture, sociology, law and the arts contributing to the development of international area studies.

IASR actively encourages both theory-oriented and applied research to help close the gap between pure theory and practice.

Published Quarterly: March, June, September, December
