

Are your descenders causing confusion?

These descenders join but don't loop.

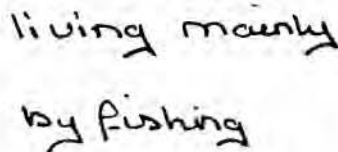

This 'g' looks more like a 'q'.

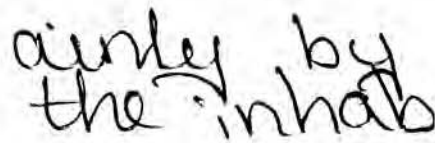

Loops sort out the confusion.

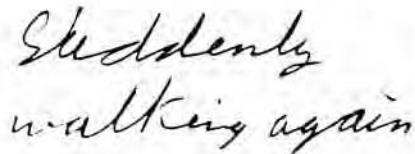

Descenders can get out of hand.

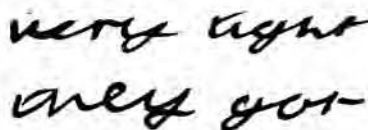

These flourishes just look fussy.

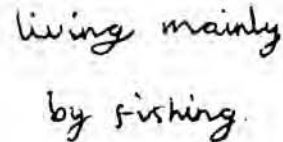

Larger flourishes get in a tangle.

These are tense, cramped descenders. Try to relax.

These descenders are too short to loop happily.

These final letters would be better unlooped.